On instructions from my Government and further to my letter No. 1/6/371 of 5 October 1992 (S/24628), I have the pleasure to transmit to you herewith two video tapes* containing interviews with Iraqi prisoners who were deluded by the Iranian regime during their captivity and induced to commit acts against their country.

I should be grateful if you would have this letter circulated as a document of the Security Council and accept the two video tapes for safe keeping.
